

Press Release:
June 8, 2009

For Immediate Release
Through July 3, 2009

Douglasville, GA – It's summer and it's time to cut loose! The Douglasville Convention and Visitors Bureau brings Footloose to O'Neal Plaza July 3rd for the second installment of Friday Night Flicks.

Kick-off your Sunday shoes and Hit the Bricks in Downtown Douglasville where dancing isn't banned. Join Ren McCormack in an evening of teenage rebellion and pick up a few dance steps that are sure to impress. You are sure to loose your blues while you shake it during the pre-show entertainment and contests. Everyone attending the movie is asked to bring a blanket, pillow, low back chair, or beanbag for seating. Pre-show entertainment will begin at 8:00 p.m. with the movie starting around 9:00 p.m. Everybody cut loose, and join the Douglasville CVB and Hit the Bricks After Dark with Friday Night Flicks in Downtown Douglasville.

###

The Georgia General Assembly established the Town of Douglasville on February 25, 1875. As a "New South" postbellum railroad town, Douglasville developed into a dominant commercial district and transformed from the little farming village of Skint Chestnut into a thriving town. Today, Douglasville boasts historic and natural attractions, shopping and culture, and casual and formal dining options, which are all the ingredients for a perfect weekend getaway. For more details, contact the Douglasville Convention & Visitors Bureau by calling toll-free (800) 661-0013 or by visiting www.visitdouglasville.com.
